SAINT LUKE'S LUTHERAN CHURCH

February 6, 1972

SAINT NICK

St. Nicholas, alias Joe Gapper, visited St. Luke's on December 12. In spite of problems with his belly, he managed to hand out gifts which included a peace insignia, hairnet, magnet, scales, gogo boots, and a collection of Pastor's sermons.

SPOTLIGHTS

Stephen Louie sheds light on the situation. He, with help from other teens, handled lighting and special effects at St. Nicholas and Candlelight programs.

DECORATORS

Dorcas Guild goes into decorating. They were responsible for lovely decorations and centerpieces St. Nick's night.

NEW LOOK

A new face was prepared for the sign used in front of the church. The teens painted and brought it back to life.

NO MORE INTERNATIONALS

The Internationals no longer exist! Instead, their fans should look for a groups called "The Shadows of Dawn", the new name by which this swinging ensemble will be known from now on.

J.H.S. 17 AT ST. LUKE'S

Every Tuesday afternoon a group of students from Junior High School 17, located on West 47th Street, comes to St. Luke's to bowl, and play pool. They are under the direction of Mr. Berger, teacher at the school.

BULLETS AND LAKERS TIED!

Basketball tournament now being held during Wednesday night program. The Bullets and Lakers are so far leading the Knicks and Bucks by 1 game! Trophies will be given to winners, and Most Valuable Player at a banquet later in the year.

TROPHY

Wednesday Nighters gave a trophy to Dinko, Joey, and Denny in appreciation for all the time they've spent working with them.

ANNUAL MEETING!

St. Luke's Annual Meeting will be held next Sunday, February 13, right after church. Dinner will be served, and everyone is urged to come!!!

REGISTER!

Special Note---18 year old voters, be sure to register so that you can vote next November!

FISH, FISH, FISH

Pastor Neibacher is looking for donations of tropical fish to replenish the now depleted supply in his office. May be brought to church in plastic bag. Aquarium available for immediate occupancy!

NEXT ISSUE

Another issue of UP TO DATE will come out next week. If you know of anything which should be included, please leave it in the church office.
